

THE VIEW, K.L.

YOU'RE DRINKING: ABSOLUT AND PINEAPPLE

Again, bringing you swanky new, The View is hot off the June press with their launch and already wowing Malaysia with a new rooftop bar with a sinful panorama of the capital. The View has interesting parentage, a father of Pernod Ricard Malaysia and a mother of the GTower where it rests, its set to be another premium locale to sit in the row of great open air, high altitude haunts that KL is especially good at. One thing not to be missed is the Absolut Bar, a really cool design feature as well as a functional one. Good music should be pumped in throughout the night by way of, initially, DJ Gregorie but more will follow. And should you need more interior spaces, pop down to the Bridge Bar for another round before you exit the building. (view.com.my)